SUMMARY

According to a first exemplary embodiment of the present invention, a method of transferring communication from a first to a second base station comprises the steps of transmitting a signal on a first frequency from the first base station to the mobile station using a waveform encoded with a first code; sending a transfer indication from the first base station via a fixed network to the second base station; upon receipt of the transfer indication, transmitting a signal on the first frequency from the second base station to the mobile
